A Season of Contrasts

“For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost.” (Luke 19:10)

- December is a month of contrasts
- Judgement and Hell?
- Do you see the contrast?
- Jesus was sent to Earth on an epic rescue mission that first Christmas.
- Only Jesus can transform deep despair into eternal hope, abject misery into abundant joy, fear of judgement into anticipation of reward, and a punishing death into everlasting life in paradise.

Reason for the Season Celebration Contest Award

Honorable Mention: Tanis Jamar, J Bar Enterprises, LLC

For several years in a row we have purchased visa gift cards for $200 each and have given our employees each a card with the instruction to use that card to help someone in need. Whether that's someone in their circle that won't be able to purchase gifts for their kids, or someone who needs help with utilities or needs their spirit lifted by a nice dinner out with a friend. We encourage our employees to use the funds for assistance, but to use the opportunity to speak life and hope into someone else during the Christmas season. We feel like this makes a more individualized impact on the giver and the receiver than writing a check to a charity and announcing it at the Christmas party.

CONGRATULATIONS and THANKS for all you do!

Grand Prize: Brice Nelson, Heartland Custom Homes

For the last 4 years we have done a "Christmas Quiz for Cash" the employees get a short read faith based book, video, or Bible passage to read or watch at the company party we have a quiz on the subject matter with right answers getting $5-20. It is a big hit and gets the gospel out to those who may never come thru the church doors.

CONGRATULATIONS and THANKS for all you do!
